

VSEC IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE THE NEWEST
MEMBER OF OUR TEAM:

Board-Certified Dermatologist
Ian Spiegel, VMD, MHS, DACVD

Dr. Spiegel sees patients by appointment 3-4 days a week with evening and Saturday appointments available. He specializes in the diagnosis and management of allergies and diseases affecting an animal's skin, ears, feet and hair coat.

EDUCATION:

- Muhlenberg College, double major in biology and philosophy, summa cum laude
- The Johns Hopkins School of Public Health and Hygiene, Masters Degree in health science
- University of Pennsylvania School of Veterinary Medicine, magna cum laude
- Cornell University- Internship in small animal medicine & surgery
- University of California (Davis)- Residency in veterinary dermatology and allergy
- Diplomate, American College of Veterinary Dermatology (ACVD)

After completing his residency, Dr. Ian Brett Spiegel started and directed the dermatology and allergy service for 5.5 years at large specialty and referral hospital in New Jersey. Aside from his clinical duties, Dr. Spiegel is a consultant for The Veterinary Information Network (VIN), serves as an expert in the field of dermatology and allergy for Veterinary Medicine, and is a consultant for PetRays™, a leading company for veterinary telemedicine consulting.

Dr. Spiegel lives with his wonderful wife and two children. The family has two cats and a dog. They enjoy the outdoors, New York City, helping animals, and traveling. Dr. Spiegel's interests include cooking, music, playing with his two children, movies, exercising, and some sports. By default, he is a fan of Thomas the Tank Engine, Yo Gabba Gabba, and Olivia the Pig. Dr. Spiegel was born and raised in this area and is excited to be back in the Philadelphia area.